Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, during the summer and fall of 1889, six South Dakota cities conducted an intensive fight to be the one chosen for the location of the Capital of South Dakota, and on October 1, 1889, Pierre won the battle; and

WHEREAS, now, state government is going on the road to the people of Beresford and the surrounding area December 9th; and

WHEREAS, this new program is called "Capital for a Day"; and

WHEREAS, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a focal forum whereby exchange of ideas, information and concerns among the Governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups and the general public can occur; and

WHEREAS, it is hoped that Capital for a Day will aid in the working relationship between state government and the citizens of South Dakota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 9, 1987, as in South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-Seven.

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
